Business Advisory Services

AdviceFirst's business advisory team provide the strategic planning, advice and coaching support for business owners or senior management teams going for growth. From financial performance to sales or mentoring, we've got advice to fit.

Our aim is simple, we help set you up for long term, sustainable growth and ultimately, bottom line success.

Strategic Marketing

We work alongside you as your go-to specialist and marketing sounding-board. We partner with you to focus your business on getting established and drive growth.

We'll help you to develop practical strategies that focus on how to be noticed and stand out in highly competitive environments. We support you as you grow and help keep you relevant; showing you how to drive client action and deliver sales - with ongoing support for your clients. As well as show you how to use digital technologies in sales & marketing to enhance your capabilities.

Human Resources

We believe that the growth of a business is intrinsically linked with the strength of its' people.

We work alongside business owners and managers providing expertise in specialist Human Resources advice with a focus on building positive cultures, tracking business performance and managing employment relations. We can help you with anything from outsourcing Human Resources entirely to partnering up to help you with key projects, be that a workplace survey, recruitment or managing a disciplinary matter.

Health, Safety & Wellbeing

As sponsors of the Safe365 Safest Places to Work Awards, we are part of the movement to positively lift the culture of workplace safety in New Zealand.

We will work alongside you, to monitor and improve health, safety and mental wellbeing in your workplace. Thereby giving you peace of mind that you are doing all you can to support your team whilst protecting yourself and your business.

Business Insurance

Peace of mind is imperative to enabling you to focus on running your business. We can help you with a variety of business insurances to protect everything you work so hard for. Getting the right business insurance cover can help your business stay on track, even when things aren't going exactly to plan.

Employee Benefits & KiwiSaver

Putting forward a meaningful package of employee benefits such as a retirement plan and life, health or trauma cover, can attract great talent and then help you retain your best people; cutting the cost of recruitment, reducing stress and absenteeism.
